KEVIN KEEGAN
TRANSFER SETS
TO BE WON

LIVERPOOL 1
MAN CITY 1
(Liverpool win 2-1 on aggregate)

WEMBLEY

What the stars said . . .

KEVIN REEVES (Man City)

After Kenny Dalglish put them ahead I knew we had a real mountain to climb but after scoring early in the second half we nearly reached the peak.

There's no way we deserved to go out on that performance — we're all very disappointed.

RAY KENNEDY (Liverpool)

It's great to be going back to Wembley again — it'll be my 10th club game there.

After Kevin Reeves scored our confidence drained and we struggled to stay in charge. But they missed a lot of chances.

We're lucky — we've got to Wembley without playing well.

TERRY McDERMOTT (Liverpool)

One or two harsh words were said in the dressing room at the end of the match but at least we're back at Wembley.

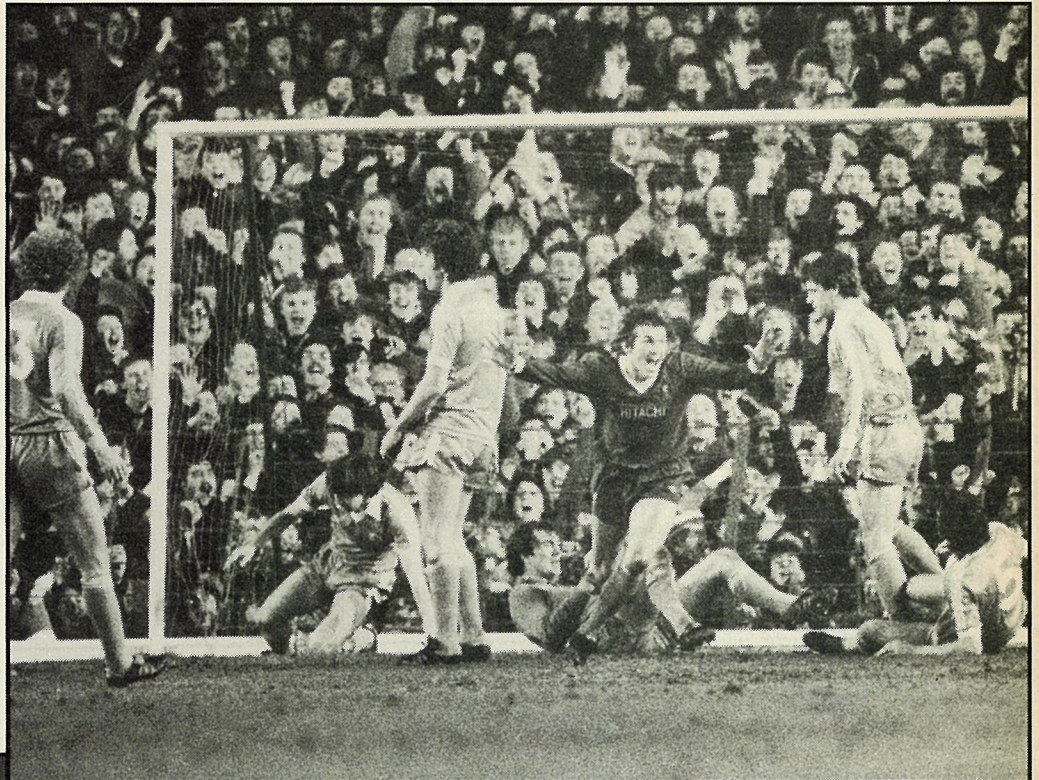

We were disappointed about our play and lacked concentration, but we'll soon be back to the Liverpool of old.

SAMMY LEE (Liverpool)

I've never played at Wembley so I'm really hoping I get a game.

I was substitute for this season's Charity Shield match but never played — I hope it's different this time.

We struggled to put our game together against City so we've got to put a few things right before the final.

ABOVE: Goal! Kenny Dalglish wheels away in triumph after putting Liverpool ahead and on the way to Wembley. City keeper Joe Corrigan is grounded and his defenders can only look on in dismay.

LEFT: High jinks from Coventry full-back Danny Thomas. The young defender takes off to deny West Ham full-back Frank Lampard the chance to set up another raid.

ABOVE: West Ham winger Jimmy Neighbour raises his arm in triumph after forcing the last second winner against Coventry, leaving goalkeeper Les Sealey down and out. Paul Goddard is about to join the celebrations while Coventry defender Paul Dyson looks on in disbelief.

BOUND!

WEST HAM 2 COVENTRY 0

(West Ham win 4-3 on aggregate)

What the stars said . . .

JOHN LYALL (West Ham manager)

It was one of the best performances I can remember from a West Ham side. They were two enthralling ties and it was a pity someone had to lose.

I am delighted for the club and the players to have the glory of going to Wembley, and it was also nice to see Jimmy Neighbour getting the winning goal.

He has never complained about not being in the team. He loves this club and it's players like him that make the game.

BILLY BONDS (West Ham)

Going to Wembley again is a bonus for us because our aim has always been to get back into the First Division. We're fortunate that our Cup run has not interfered with our progress in the League.

Coventry battled well and never dropped their heads. They are a young side and no doubt their time will come.

RON WYLIE (Coventry assistant manager)

It was terribly disappointing to lose in the last seconds, but we have no complaints on the night as West Ham deserved to win.

JIMMY NEIGHBOUR (West Ham)

If I had hit the ball cleanly Les Sealey might well have saved it. I just followed the ball in when the cross dropped at my feet. It never crossed my mind that I could have been offside.

I felt sorry for Patsy Holland who missed the match through injury. The manager faces a tough decision for the final, but it's good for the team that there is so much competition for places. I just hope I'm around when he picks the next team.

GORDON MILNE (Coventry manager)

We reached this stage of the cup on merit and then blew it. We just didn't put our game together at all on the night.

Our Matchmen

Brighton striker Mike Robinson, the First Division winger, is seen receiving his trophy from regional sales manager Sean Gillett before their recent match with Tottenham (centre picture).

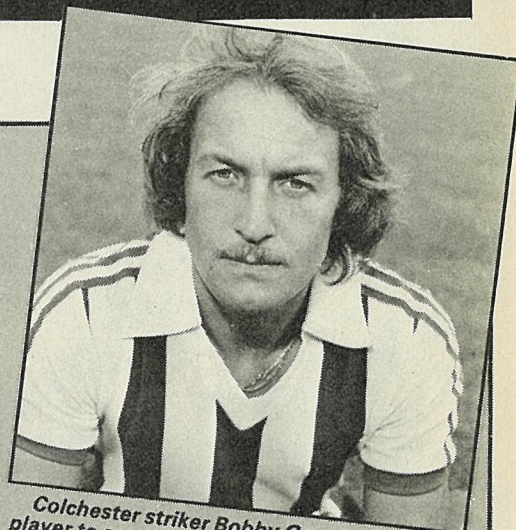

Derby's former England centre half Roy McFarland won the Second Division award (left), while Rotherham's Tony Towner received the Third Division honour (right).

'Liverpool for me' — Brown

KEN BROWN — manager of relegation haunted Norwich, is convinced of one thing: "It's Liverpool for the title."

Ken, former England and West Ham centre-half, says: "Liverpool are still the most complete team in the League."

"Ipswich have done well, but they haven't the all-round ability and I can see a few chinks in Aston Villa's armour."

Colchester striker Bobby Gough — the last player to score a hat-trick against Shrewsbury.

Hong Kong Gunners

THE Arsenal players, having been in the FA Cup final for the past three years, will be the other side of the world when this season's big day comes round in May.

The Gunners, knocked out at Everton in the Third round, will be on a two-match trip to Hong Kong.

"In a way I'm glad we will be out of the country because I don't think I could bear to watch it," says their England midfield star Graham Rix.

Hat-trick hero

NEWPORT County goal poacher Dave Gwyther is the man for hat-tricks in the FA Cup.

He has hit twice as many in the Cup (four) as he has in the League!

No other current player has achieved more than two FA Cup hat-tricks.

Shrewsbury's distinction

SECOND Division Shrewsbury have gone the longest of all the 92 League clubs since conceding a hat-trick.

The last player to score three goals against them was current Colchester striker Bobby Gough for Port Vale as far back as September, 1970.

Meanwhile, Fourth Division Halifax have gone the longest time since any of their players managed to score a hat-trick. Terry Shanahan was the last man to do it when he slammed home three goals against Brentford back in April, 1973.

LOYAL BILLY

WEST Ham's League Cup success over Coventry recently was not the only highlight for Hammers skipper Billy Bonds.

Before the semi-final, second leg clash at Upton Park, Billy received an award from the club to mark his 600th appearance in the Hammers' colours.

What's the link?

WHAT HAVE managers Lawrie McMenemy (Southampton), Mike Smith (Hull City), Colin Murphy (Lincoln) and Dario Gradi (Crystal Palace) in common?

Yes, you've guessed it! They are the only current Football League managers who have never actually played League football.

Israel . . . we'll make a point of it!

says Scotland's Danny McGrain

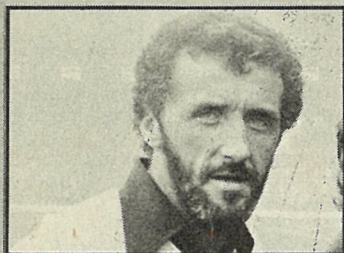

SCOTLAND go into the unknown next Wednesday, but full back Danny McGrain is confident they will return from Israel with at least one vital World Cup point.

Scottish fans, disappointed with the goalless home draw with Group Six leaders Portugal last October, expect Israel to be nothing more than a stepping stone en-route to next year's finals in Spain.

But Celtic star Danny issues a warning: "It's our first-ever visit to Israel so we don't know what to expect. They have already drawn with Northern Ireland and Sweden (twice) in the qualifying competition, so they won't be pushovers.

"Like most small countries their football standards have improved over the years and with home advantage in the sunshine and a fanatical sell-out crowd, we can expect a tough time.

"But our squad should be capable of achieving a result over there. A point from an away game would be quite nice at this stage of the competition, with a win being something of a bonus."

Danny McGrain — a warning for Scots fans.

Israel's only defeat so far came at the hands of Portugal who top the qualifying group with five points from three matches.

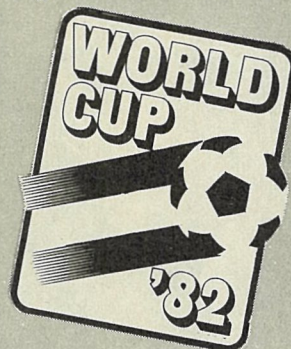

"Obviously the goalless draw with Portugal was disappointing for our fans, but they were very defensive," says Danny.

"But the fact that we created several chances against a packed defence was encouraging and the recent friendly win over Austria gave our confidence a big boost."

Match Chat

Compiled by Bob Warters

Sky's the limit!

WHO says you need a settled team to gain success on the field? Certainly not Coventry manager Gordon Milne.

For the Sky Blues boss obviously believes in chopping and changing his exciting young side.

On the way to the League Cup semi-final second leg meeting with West Ham he had used no less than 20 players — nearly two whole teams — for their eight matches. The full list of player's who've appeared in the cup for Coventry is: Jim Blyth (3), Les Sealey (5), Mick Coop (5), Brian Roberts (8), Andy Blair (8), Paul Dyson (8), Gary Gillespie (6), Gerry Daly (6), Steve Hunt (8), David Jones (1), Gary Bannister (1), Roger Van Gool (2), Tom English (4), Garry Thompson (6), Steve Jacobs (2), Tommy Hutchison (1), Mark Hateley (5), Ray Gooding (1), Peter Bodak (5), Danny Thomas (4).

All-weather Rangers

SCOTLAND always bears the brunt of the weather and this invariably means a number of postponements during the winter months.

But Premier Division Rangers are looking to stop the number of 'called-off' matches at Ibrox.

They are considering a plan to install underground heating.

Officials of the club have already visited English teams with the undersoil system to see how it works.

The move is the latest in a long line of improvements to Ibrox. At the end of the year they hope their new stand will be ready for opening. It will take the place of the Centenary Stand.

Lou Macari — bought George Best's boots!

Lou's golden boots

HOW much are a pair of George Best's boots worth?

As far as Manchester United's Lou Macari is concerned, the answer is £140. That's what he paid for them at an auction at a charity boxing dinner.

"I can't compare people like Pele because I've only seen them on TV, but of all the players I have watched and played with George was the best," said Lou.

"When he came back to United the last time he wasn't fit and a stone overweight. Yet in training he just dummied and he could leave you for dead. Fantastic."

Did Lou buy the boots with a view to wearing them himself? Sadly no.

George was not a big man, but pint-sized Lou takes only a size 5½ — and besides the boots have been painted gold!

WIN a colour TV

HOW WOULD you like to be the proud owner of a Ferguson Moviestar colour TV?

If you would, and you believe that your newsagent is the best there is, then you are in with a chance.

If you think your newsagent has special qualities — it might be that he or she is particularly helpful and friendly; always has the publication you require or is prepared to get it; or one of a thousand reasons you might think of, then write and tell us.

Your nomination should provide your reasons for sponsoring your choice, his or her name and address and, of course, your own.

There will also be five Ferguson 12" portable black & white televisions for each of the nominators of the five runners up in this competition.

Send your nomination to 'Newsagent of the Year' Competition, EMAP National Publications Ltd., Bretton Court, Bretton, Peterborough PE3 8DZ, to arrive by no later than Saturday, February 28.

FEW clubs can match Liverpool for their near-exemplary player behaviour. They have never had a player sent off in well over 100 matches in European cup competitions, and of the 500 dismissals in the Football League during the last five seasons only one was a Liverpool player — Terry McDermott last season.

AWAY FROM IT ALL

WE WERE all glad to get a break in sunny Spain just before the Southampton game and re-charge our batteries for the uphill struggle we're facing.

After training each morning on the beach at Marbella, most of the lads were happy simply to relax.

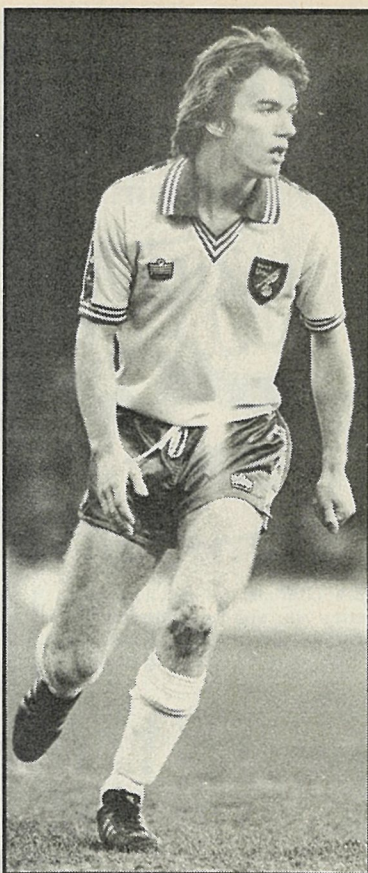

I was no exception although I did spend some time driving around in a pal's Aston Martin Lagonda and on his boat moored at a local port. That's the life.

It's these kind of breaks which encourage a real family atmosphere among the players and often where they suddenly develop nicknames.

For instance I have suddenly been dubbed 'Funky' Fashanu, for my taste in disco music, while our new signing from Liverpool Dave Watson now answers to 'European Cup' because of the way his ears stick out!

John McDowell's known as 'McDee', Joe Royle as 'JR', Mark Barham as 'Rat' because he's so quick and goalkeeper Roger Hunsbury as 'Hands', while for some reason Greg Downs answers to 'The Minister' and Dave Bennett as 'Stretch'.

We're a strange breed!

Mark Barham . . . his sharpness and quickness off the mark have earned him the nickname of 'Rat' with the other players.

The players

IT WAS a great thrill for me to watch Kevin Keegan at close quarters when we played Southampton at the Dell recently.

I've seen him at England matches and on TV before but this was the first time I've played in the same match.

He impressed me not only with his ability but his attitude on and off the field — he's such a good influence on other players.

Ray Clemence is another — a real professional. When he came to Carrow Road a few weeks ago, I couldn't help noticing from my seat in the stand — I was injured that day — how, despite the pouring rain, he was out on the pitch long before kick off making absolutely sure he had the right gloves and studs to suit the conditions. His preparation was meticulous.

Two others I admire are Arnold Muhren and Frans Thijssen of Ipswich. They have adapted so well to the English game and introduced their own brand of Dutch football in such superb style.

Arnold's not the greatest tackler in the world, but he has such a good left foot and variety in his game.

As for Frans he's great at dribbling and running at people then chipping in with the odd goal.

A great combination and with Paul Mariner and Alan Brazil in such good form too, Ipswich have so much to admire.

I'm happy at Norwich

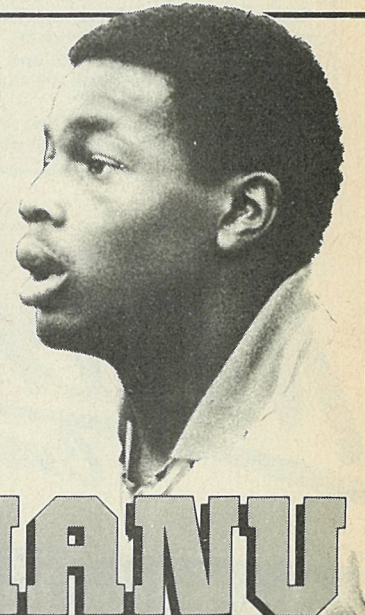

I KEEP reading in the newspapers that I'm on my way to this club and that.

But I can tell you that at the moment, I'm happy being a professional for Norwich City.

Of course, I've read that Nottingham Forest, Leeds, Queen's Park Rangers and Arsenal have been asking about a possible transfer.

But I'm told there has been nothing from them approaching Norwich City's valuation of me.

So, while that is the case and while the fans continue to be great towards me, I'm happy to 'do the business' as we say, at Carrow Road.

Hard but honest that's Joe

WE'RE at Birmingham on Saturday and that means an encounter with their skipper Joe Gallagher.

He's hard is Joe, but fair and honest too and he knows I'm no softy, either. That always makes for an interesting tussle.

Earlier this season we drew 2-2 at Carrow Road when Graham 'Budgie' Paddon, who has just been appointed our new club skipper, and I scored.

It would be nice to knock another past Jeff Wealds on Saturday — preferably for two points this time!

Finally, a quick hello to Simon a young lad from Southampton who says he enjoys reading my articles in Match and when I gave him my autograph at The Dell, he asked if I'd give him a mention.

How's that Simon. See you all again soon.

GREAT NEW CUT OUT AND KEEP SERIES

THERE are just 476 Soccer days to the World Cup finals which start in Spain on June 13, 1982.

And Match Weekly begins its countdown with this World Cup scrap book, which you can cut out and keep track of the World's greatest tournament.

Week by week, we'll be bringing you the latest, news and results plus features on the key players all building up to a fascinating catalogue of events. Don't miss it.

'Better than ever'

SPURS' OSSIE Ardiles rates the current Argentina team, assured of a place in Spain as World Cup holders, as better than the team which won the Cup in 1978.

"The team is better and it will really show itself once it gains the necessary team work," says Ossie.

Peru blow

PERU'S 1982 World Cup plans have been hit by the surprise resignation of manager, Marcos Calderon. Some cloak and dagger stuff behind the scenes is being given as an explanation.

Why Dutch are on way out . . .

HOLLAND, who have appeared in the last two World Cup Finals without any luck, are given little chance of repeating their past glories.

One Spanish magazine which always referred to the great Dutch teams of the past as the 'grand orange' now calls them the 'little mandarin'!

And the team's coach Jan Zwartkruis, who was in charge for the recent Uruguayan Gold Cup tournament but hounded into resignation afterwards, says: "Our soccer continues to deteriorate because our experienced players are leaving and our younger players earn too much money."

"They think they know it all and will not play as a team any more."

Feinting to cross

KENNY Sansom has made the No. 3 England shirt almost his own personal property — and a key reason is his attacking flair.

Though he's no mean defender his strength is his ability to create attacking options on the left side.

After acting as 'stooge' for Arsenal team-mate Willie Young for the past three weeks, Kenny steps into the Match Weekly Soccer School limelight with tips on feinting to cross.

THERE'S nothing I like more than supporting an attack and getting the chance to run at defenders and fortunately my club boss Terry Neill and Ron Greenwood, the England manager, encourage me to do it.

If the ball is played ahead of me on an overlap run, I try whenever I can to get the cross in because a team-mate is almost certain to time his run to the cross and I don't want to ruin it.

Sometimes, however, I sense that my opponent will definitely block the cross, so I'll try this little trick and pull the ball back inside him and look to create a chance for a supporting colleague.

Depending on how accurate you are with your inside foot, you can either play the ball to the far post or perhaps knock it in short to create a shooting chance for a colleague.

But whatever you do, don't overdo it. If the cross is on, get it over!

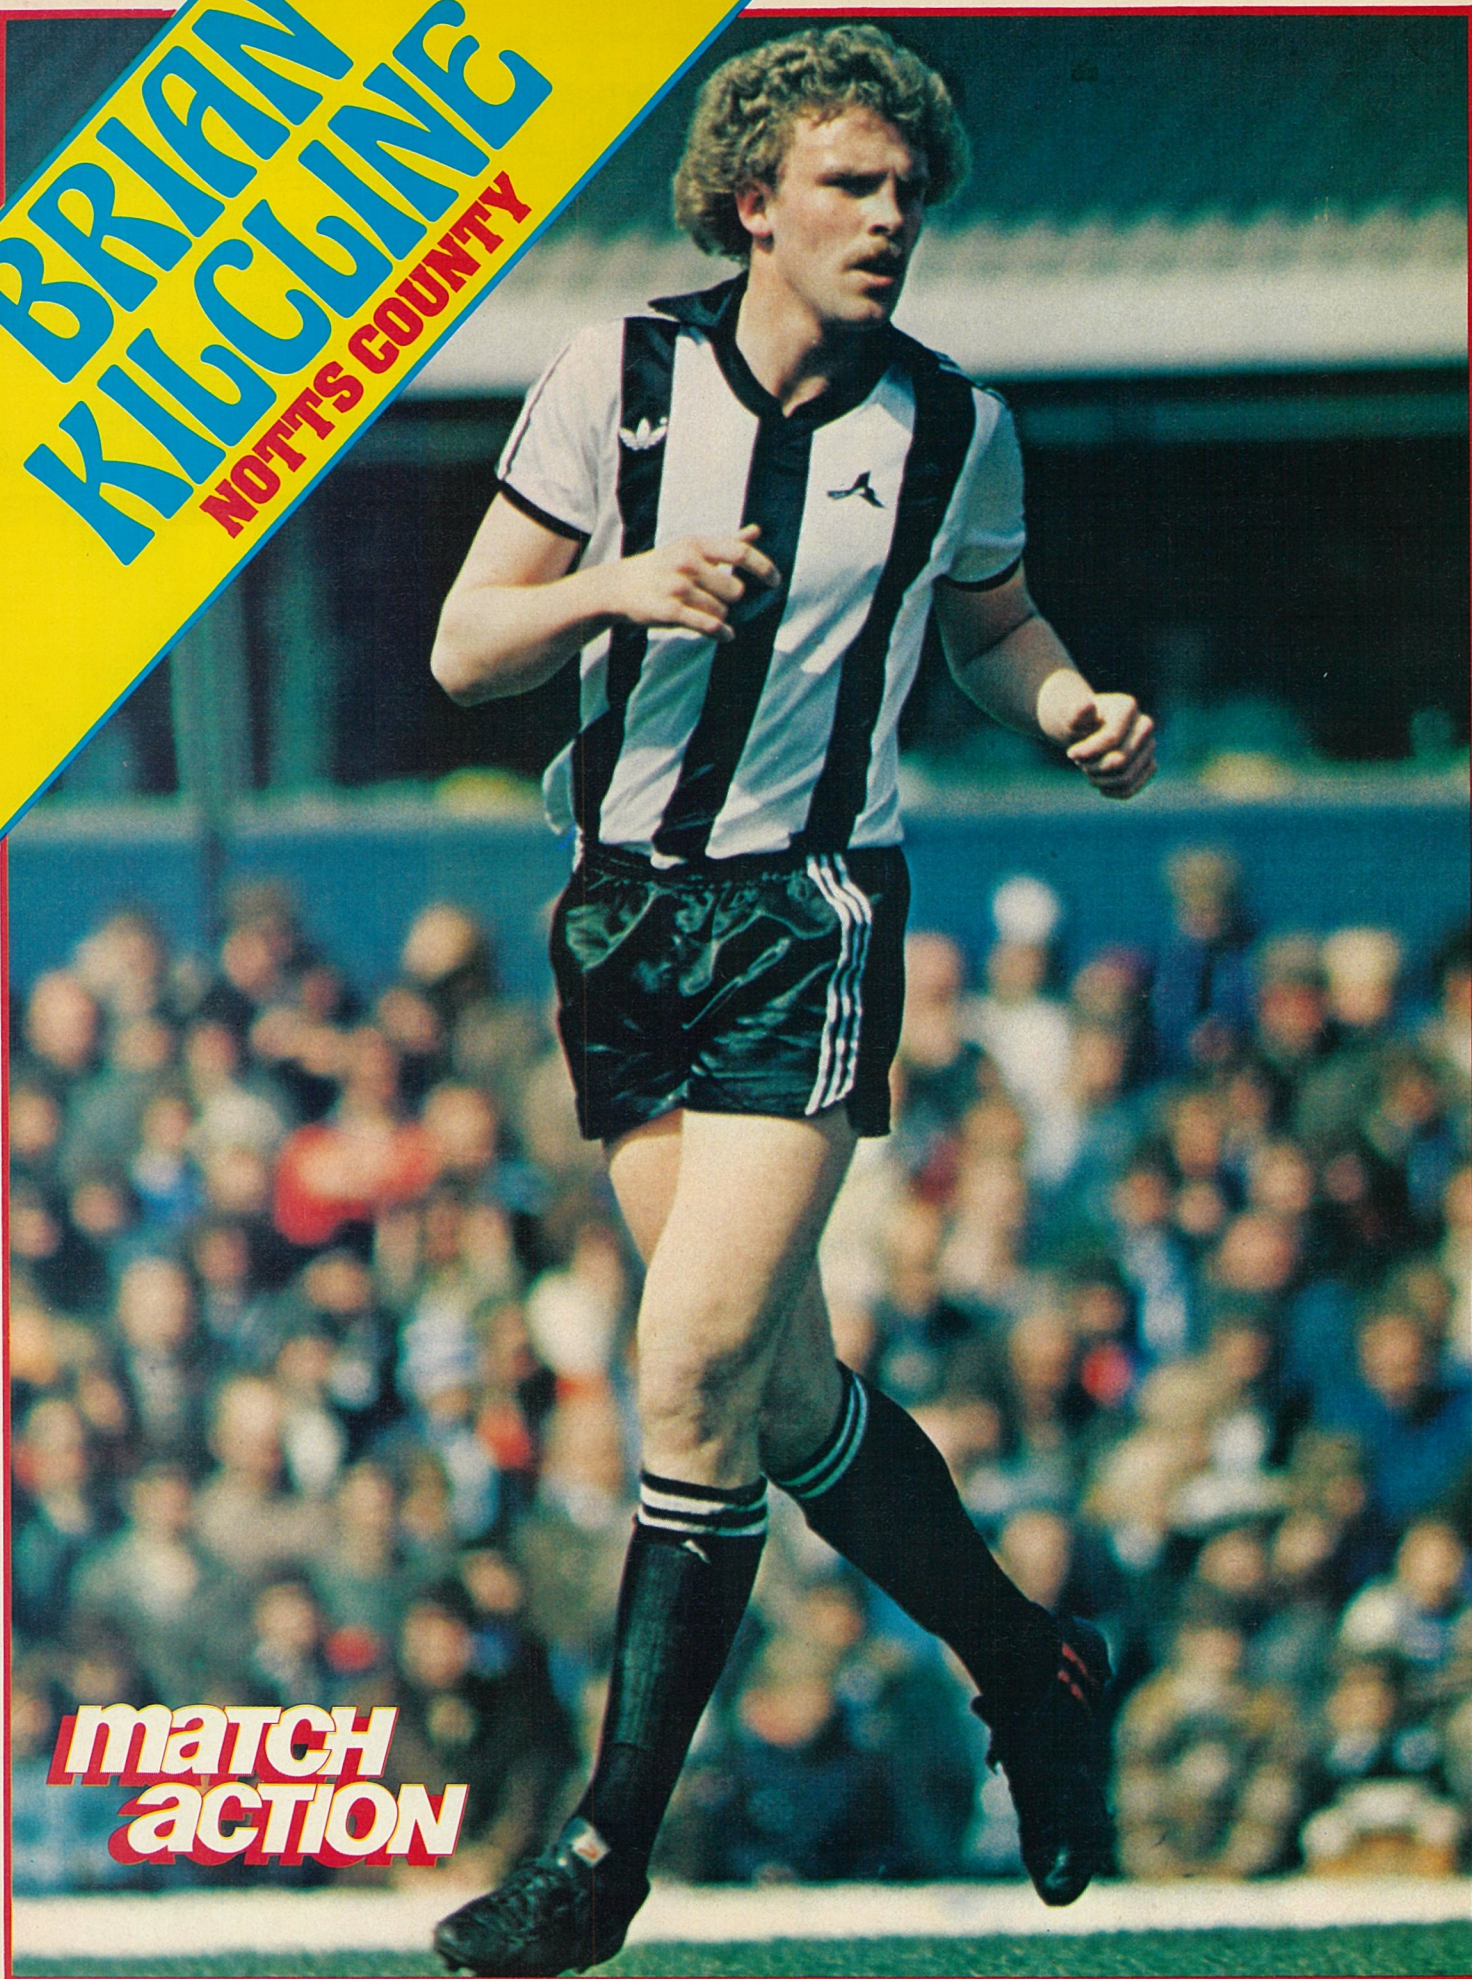

- 1... Willie tries to channel me down the touchline...
- 2... and I shape to go for the cross...
- 3... but then I check back...
- 4... and having committed him off balance...
- 5... I'm free to look for alternatives.

THE STORY SO FAR... KENNY DALGLISH HAS RETURNED DISAPPOINTED FROM THE 1974 WORLD CUP IN GERMANY.

BUT SCOTLAND BOUNCED BACK AT HAMPDEN BY BEATING THE TOUGH EAST GERMANS & KENNY HIT THE THIRD & FINAL GOAL.

... A FEW WEEKS LATER KENNY WAS CELEBRATING AGAIN THIS TIME, HIS WEDDING IN GLASGOW TO MARINA, DAUGHTER OF A RUTHERGLEN HOTELIER.

HUNDREDS OF CELTIC FANS WATCHED OUTSIDE THE CHURCH TO SEE THE COUPLE LEAVE IN A SILVER ROLLS-ROYCE, AMONG THEM SKIPPER BILLY Mc NEILL WHO DASHED BACK FROM COLLECTING HIS MBE FROM BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

THAT YEAR CELTIC MET HIBERNIAN LOOKING TO END A STRING OF FOUR LEAGUE CUP FINAL DEFEATS.

CAN CELTIC END LEAGUE CUP HOODOO?

IT WOULD BE GREAT TO HIT THEM FOR SIX AGAIN LIKE IN 1968.

AND SO IT TURNED OUT, WITH DIXIE DEANS SCORING A HAT-TRICK IN CELTIC'S 6-3 TRIUMPH.

NEW FOREST

Gunn, Mills, Walsh and Gray the seeds

him that if he shows any indication that he can catch a football as well as he does a cricket ball, Peter Shilton will have to watch out!

Gary Mills . . . he's another who got into our first team at an early age and although he's only just 19 now, he made his debut in the European Cup as a 16 year old against AEK Athens.

It shows what we think about him that he got the job of filling in for Trevor Francis in last season's European Cup Final against Hamburg and he certainly didn't let us down. Now we are looking for him to really establish himself.

Colin Walsh . . . we always thought he had something special when he joined us from Scotland. Manchester United didn't fancy him although he had trials at Old Trafford and I was delighted when he chose to join us.

He's a left-sided midfield player with all the qualities needed to make a success of the role.

His arrival on the first team scene has

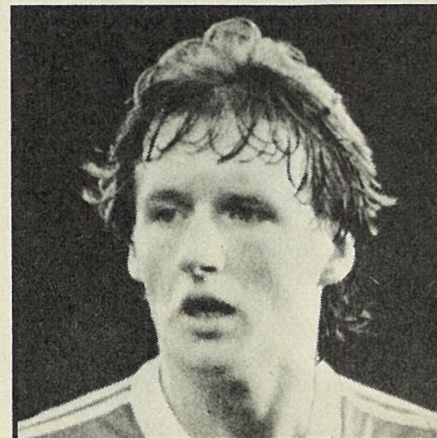

of a great future

been like a breath of fresh air for John Robertson.

Stuart Gray . . . he made his debut in the Manchester City match I mentioned earlier and slotted in perfectly in place of John McGovern, who had to drop out through injury.

Stuart's been the most unlucky player I have known, with the injuries and illness he's suffered since joining us. He's had so many problems that I'm sure he's already had half a dozen transplants.

But hopefully, the only worries he will cause in the future will be those he makes for opponents.

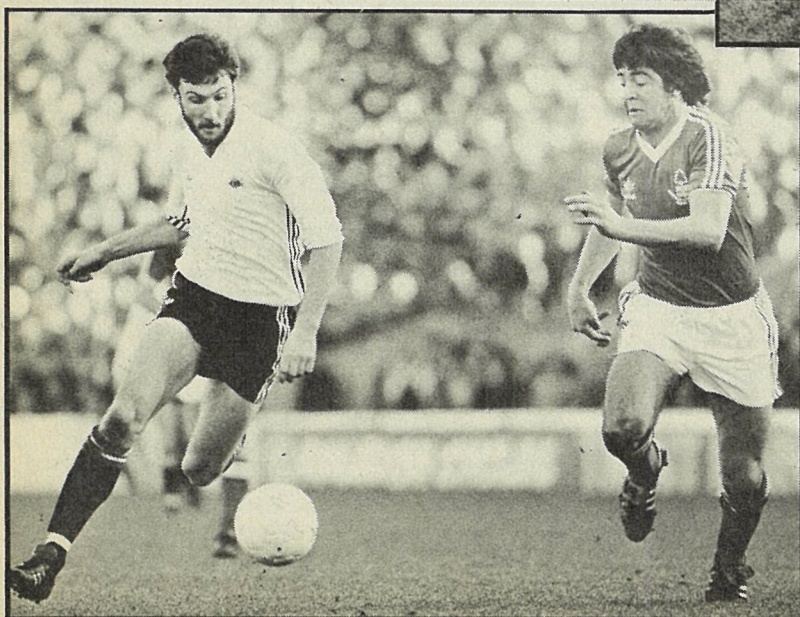

Above: Colin Walsh . . . all the qualities needed for success.

Brian Clough with some footballers from the Huntingdon Junior School, Nottingham . . . Forest fans of today, but perhaps Forest players of tomorrow.

Brian CLOUGH

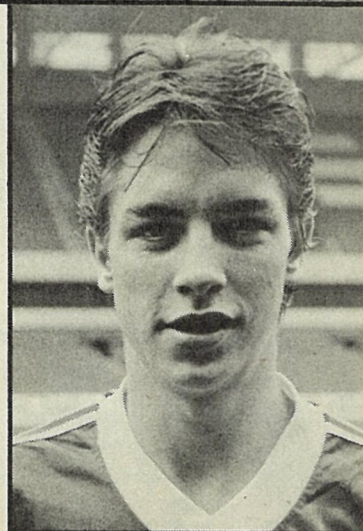

THE MAN YOU CAN'T IGNORE WRITES ONLY IN MATCH

'MATCHMAN' GALLIERS

MEET Wimbledon's Steve Galliers... Match Weekly's Fourth Division 'Matchman of the Month' for January.

The one-time apprentice bricklayer from Cheshire, star man in all the London club's five matches during the month, is quick to share his success with his team mates.

"I am enjoying my best spell for some time, but it makes it easier when the team is playing so well," says the hard working midfielder player.

"We've been playing particularly well away from home to the extent that we are by no means out of the promotion race.

"If we can put a run of results together then we could possibly make it back to the Third Division at the first attempt."

Wimbledon, the Football League's newest club, were relegated last season after just one campaign in the Third Division.

Says Steve, who once played with Blackburn Reserves as an amateur: "I think it was the lack of experience in all parts of the club which led to us being relegated.

Steve Galliers: "Wimbledon are by no means out of the promotion race."

Let's face it, we've only been in the League three full seasons.

"But I think we would fare much better second time around because the players know what to expect."

Steve has been at Wimbledon since their FA Cup giant-killing acts led them to League status in 1977.

He explains: "The season before they were elected I played against them in the FA Trophy for home-town club Chorley.

"Wimbledon, who had beaten Burnley in the FA Cup and frightened Leeds, beat us at the third attempt, but I had what were probably my three best games of the season against them.

"In the summer Wimbledon invited me down on a part-time basis and I signed on full-time halfway through the season."

MATCH WEEKLY

The meanest team in the League!

FOURTH Division Lincoln City are the most uncharitable team in the Football League . . . and they don't mind one bit.

Their mean streak in defence is one of the main reasons behind their championship drive.

Up to the end of last month they had conceded just 16 League goals which was far and away the best defensive record among the four divisions.

But that's not to say Lincoln are obsessed with defence.

Top scorer Gordon Hobson, whose personal goal tally stood at 15 a couple of weeks back says:

"We've not changed our style at all this season.

"I don't know why we have become tighter and we're proud of it says Lincoln's GORDON HOBSON

at the back because it's virtually the same defence as last season, although perhaps the understanding is better.

"But we are scoring an average of almost two goals per game so there is no question of us being defensive minded. It's just one of those football questions that can't really be answered.

"All good sides have the backbone of a solid defence and we are no exception with skipper Trevor Peake probably the key figure in our success this season."

Another important player was striker Mick Harford who was leading Lincoln's scoring chart before being snapped up by Second Division Newcastle just before Christmas.

But, according to Gordon, Jamaican-born Tony Cunningham is proving a more than useful replacement.

"Obviously Mick was a key figure in our system because he was the focal point of our attack, so we missed him for a few matches," says Gordon.

"But once Tony settled down in Mick's role, we didn't notice the difference and the side is really playing well.

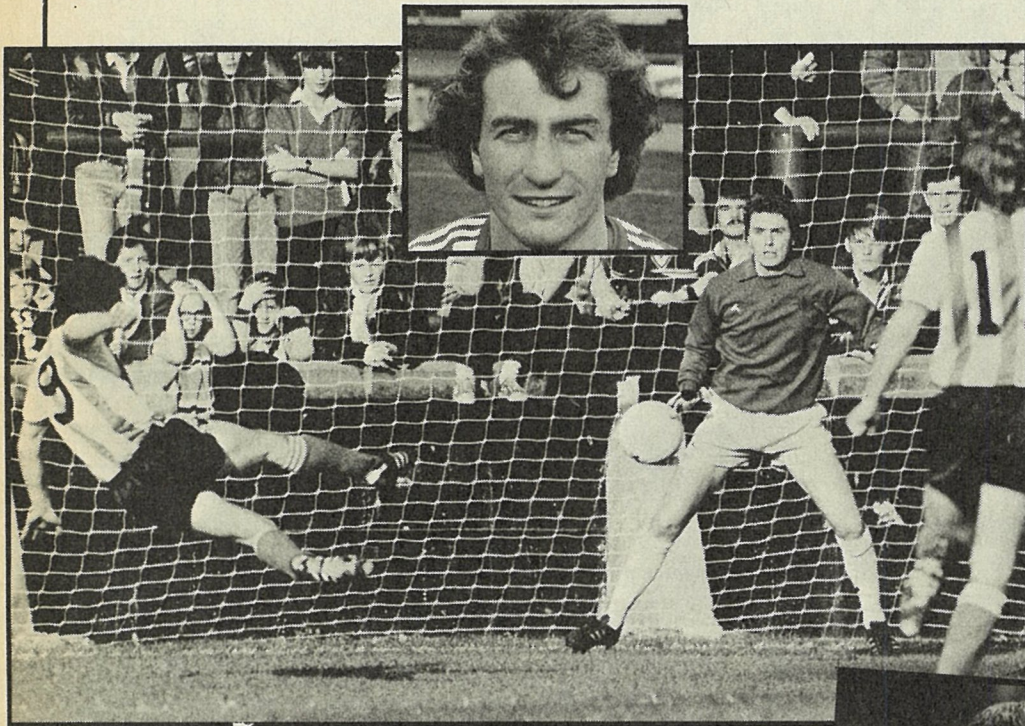

"We finished last season with an unbeaten run of 12 matches to finish seventh so our success this season has been no surprise. We only need about one point a game to go up, but we are after the championship."

And Gordon backs Lincoln to pip Southend for the title.

"The crunch game will be at Southend near the end of the season, but we're after the championship medals. You get nothing for being runners-up.

"We might need a couple more players to make an impression in the Third Division, but our present side would be strong enough to hold its own."

Lincoln's Gordon Hobson (inset) and in dynamic action as he fires in a volley against Northampton goalkeeper Andy Poole.

"BRING an adult and you can get in free" . . . that was the message to the youngsters of Lincoln from the city's football club who are bidding for Fourth Division honours.

More than 1,000 youngsters took up the offer and Lincoln's 'paid-up' attendance for the recent clash with Crewe rose by over 500.

See Imps free

"We felt the experiment was reasonably successful and we may consider doing it again before the end of the season," said a club spokesman.

Ricky's match day

FORMER Preston, Orient, Chesterfield and Peterborough midfielder Ricky Heppolette is playing for a Sunday morning works side in the Peterborough area.

Ricky, who recently had his contract with Peterborough cancelled by mutual consent, is turning out for a team managed by current Peterborough defender Colin Foster.

"I'm just keeping myself fit until something crops up," says Ricky who has already turned down an offer to play in Hong Kong.

Webb's boys

FOURTH Division Bournemouth have found an unlikely source of new talent. Their three newest apprentice professionals are all of West Indian parentage and all come from the same school — McEntee Secondary in Walthamstow, North London.

Manager David Webb (left) reckons all three have a real chance of making the grade: "I'm amazed none of the London clubs have picked them up," he says.

Sixteen-year-old midfielder player Danny Bailey has already made his first team debut and both John Rodney and Milton Graham are shining in the reserves.

Paul MADELEY

Pole-axed!

HOW JAN SHATTERED A WORLD CUP DREAM

BRIAN CLOUGH called him a 'clown', but the antics of Jan Tomaszewski prevented Paul Madeley from achieving a World Cup dream.

The gangling, unknown Polish goalkeeper stunned the Wembley crowd with an inspired performance which dumped England out of the World Cup.

It was 1973 and England had to win their final group match against the Poles to qualify for a place in the finals in West Germany a year later.

But despite their dominance in the game, Tomaszewski was beaten just once and England were out after being held 1-1.

"The game was a disaster for England and the biggest disappointment of my international career," admits Paul.

"That night their goalkeeper saved everything we threw at him as shots hit the woodwork, bounced off defenders, or crept just wide of the goal."

And despite Clough's assurances to the fans on television at half-time that the Polish 'keeper was a 'clown', he kept up his acrobatics for another 45 minutes to keep England out.

"We were unlucky to go out because I thought we could have done well in the finals. We had the potential of a very good side," added Paul.

Paul earned 24 England caps and made his debut at right back against Northern Ireland in Belfast in May 1971 — a game England won thanks to the only goal of the game from his then team-mate and now manager of Leeds Allan Clarke.

LEEDS' FORMER ENGLAND STAR TALKS TO MATCH

Queens Park Rangers midfield star Tony Currie — rated highly by Paul Madeley.

THE GLORY YEARS

PAUL MADELEY, a key member of Don Revie's all conquering Leeds United, is hanging up his boots at the end of the season.

Now, only winger turned full-back, Eddie Gray, remains of the team which won two League Championships, two Fairs Cup trophies, the FA Cup, League Cup, and finished runners-up in all on numerous occasions.

Match Weekly writer Anthony Hawkswell talked to Paul about the glory years and here we pay special tribute to the versatile star who played over 700 competitive games for the Elland Road side.

'Brady's in Bobby's class'

LIAM BRADY's in the same class as the great Bobby Charlton. So says the man who's marked them both.

In his 17 years at the top Paul has shadowed the world's best, but he says: "With players like Liam (now Juventus) and Bobby there were times I just held up my hands in despair."

"Along with Tony Currie (now Queens Park Rangers) and George Best they stand out as the best players I've ever faced," said Paul.

Frightening

"Marking players of their class is frightening because it's very difficult to get tight to them," said Paul.

"I played much of my career as an anchor man in midfield and it was my job to mark the opposition's most dangerous player."

As well as playing in midfield Paul made a name for himself as a very versatile player and turned out for Leeds in every position except goalkeeper.

"I didn't mind where I played as long as I got a game — it just worked out that I was always the man to deputise for injured players," added Paul.

"The position I enjoyed most was midfield, but I am basically a defender."

Haunted by Revie

LEEDS manager Allan Clarke will always live under a shadow.

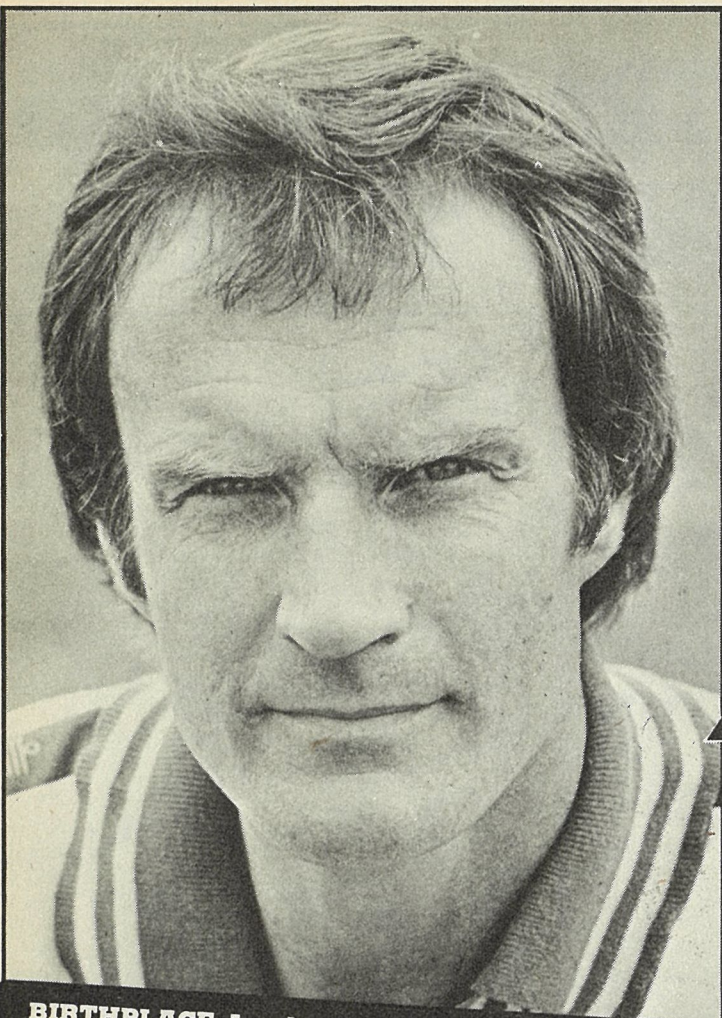

Says Paul: "Whoever manages Leeds will always be haunted by the achievements of Don Revie."

"Don set such a high standard that it's very hard for anyone else to follow."

"But after some disappointing years I can see a chink of light at the end of the tunnel."

"I think Allan will get Leeds back on the right track, but it will take time."

"Unlike Liverpool, who replaced their stars one at a time, Leeds allowed their players to leave a couple at a time and it proved difficult to replace them."

'My proudest moment'

Liam Brady (Juventus) in the same class as the great Bobby Charlton.

MANAGERS will insist that the League Championship is the most important trophy to win, but the FA Cup has an irresistible glamour for the players.

And Paul readily admits that his proudest moment in the white shirt of Leeds was when Billy Bremner lifted the FA Cup in May 1972.

"We beat Arsenal 1-0 in a boring final — but the way we won it didn't bother me at all.

"The sense of achievement was tremendous — it was the culmination of a schoolboy dream.

"I've won two League Championships with Leeds, but the FA Cup will always stick out in my mind as the highspot of my career," said Paul.

"The low-spot was when we were beaten 2-0 by Bayern Munich in the 1974-75 European Cup Final in Paris.

"It was specially-disappointing because we played so well and they hit us twice on the break," added Paul.

'Ah! That's better — my foot was itching!'

QUESTION: Why do footballers get cold on the pitch?
ANSWER: Because of all the fans on the terraces!
 Darren Luxton (8), Mainstone, Plymouth, Devon.

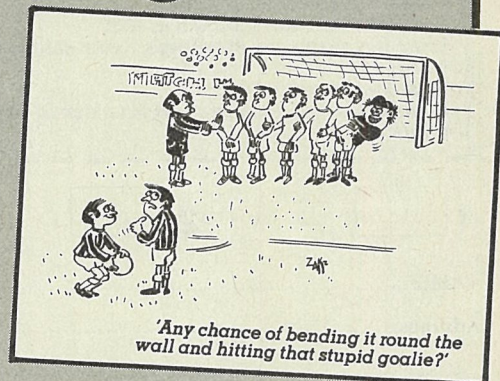

'You can't even shoot straight at that game, Haynes!'

It's Fun Time

DON HOWE arrived at Highbury to see his Arsenal manager Terry Neill planting some potatoes in his office.

"What are you planting those for?" asked Don.

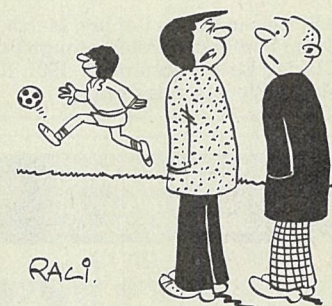

"So we'll have something to lift at the end of the season," came the reply!
 Andrew Boyd, Falkirk, Scotland.

'Any chance of bending it round the wall and hitting that stupid goalie?'

"Today I'm going to name our main rivals who could stop us getting promotion."

'He has a lot of potential — Malcolm Allison sold him twice.'

A certain goalie called Flinn, Lost count of the goals he let in, When his team-mate said eight, He replied quite sedate, 'Then we need only nine to win!'
 Mark Amos, Whitchurch, Cardiff.

TRANSFER SETS MUST BE WON

KEVIN KEEGAN has scored some marvellous goals in his sparkling career. Goals that have won important games, for Liverpool, Hamburg, Southampton and England.

To commemorate his scoring feats, Thomas Salter Ltd. have produced a set of Action Replay Transfers based on eight of Kevin's favourite goals.

In this super, free to enter competition, we're giving away a complete set of Action Replay transfers plus a wall chart to FIFTY lucky winners. It's a simple competition based on three of the goals found in the Action Replay set.

How to enter:

We want you to place in order of merit the three Kevin Keegan goals described below. For example if you think goal B was the best, mark B in the number one box on the coupon. The editor of Match Weekly will make his choice, and the first 50 entries that match up to his selection will each receive this novel Action Replay prize.

It couldn't be easier could it?

Goal A v Scotland in 1979

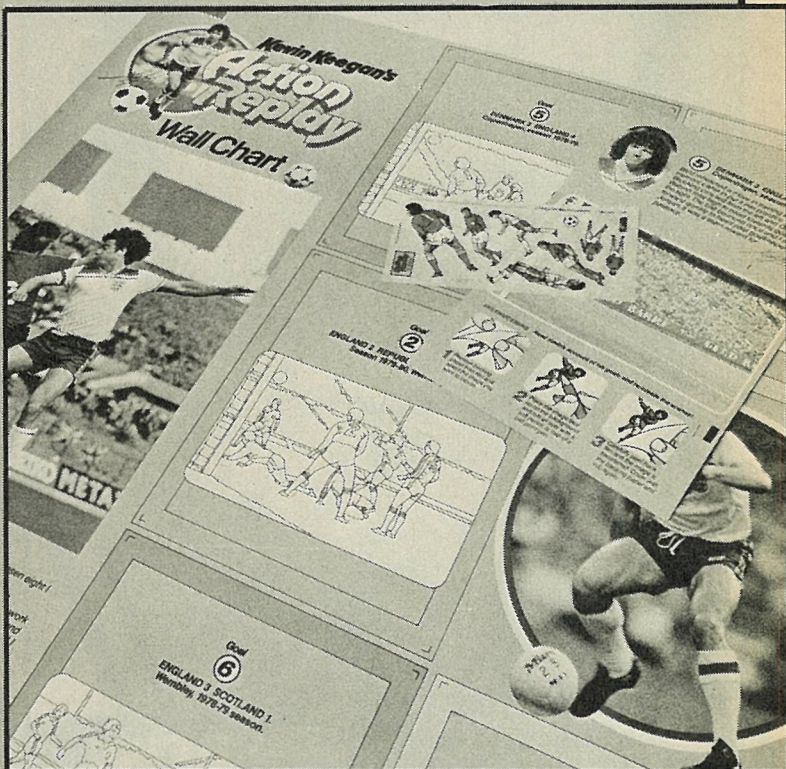

Kevin played a one-two with Trevor Brooking and ran on to beat 'keeper George Wood.

Goal B v Republic of Ireland in 1980

Brushing past three defenders, Kevin calmly chipped the ball over the 'keeper.

Goal C v Bruges in 1976

In the UEFA Cup Final, a short free-kick to Kevin and he rifled the ball home.

STAR GALLERY

WIN £2 and enjoy yourself at the same time!

Sounds great doesn't it? All you have to do is send in a drawing of your favourite player together with a short letter telling us why you think he deserves a place in our 'Star Gallery'.

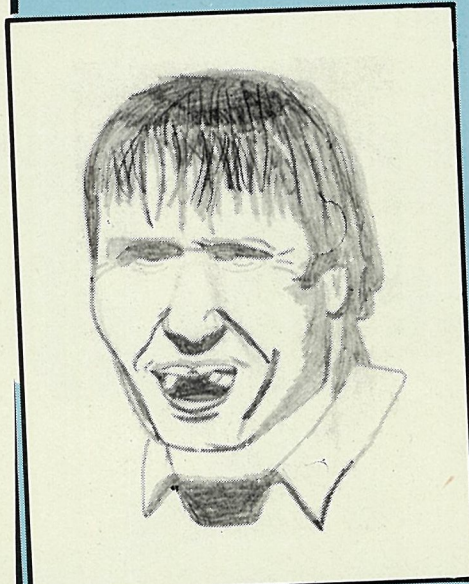

Address your entries to: 'Star Gallery', Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough.

Another goalkeeper to star in our gallery is Middlesbrough's Jim Platt. The drawing was sent in by Steven Popple (13), of Stockton-on-Tees, Cleveland. "He's very safe," says Steven.

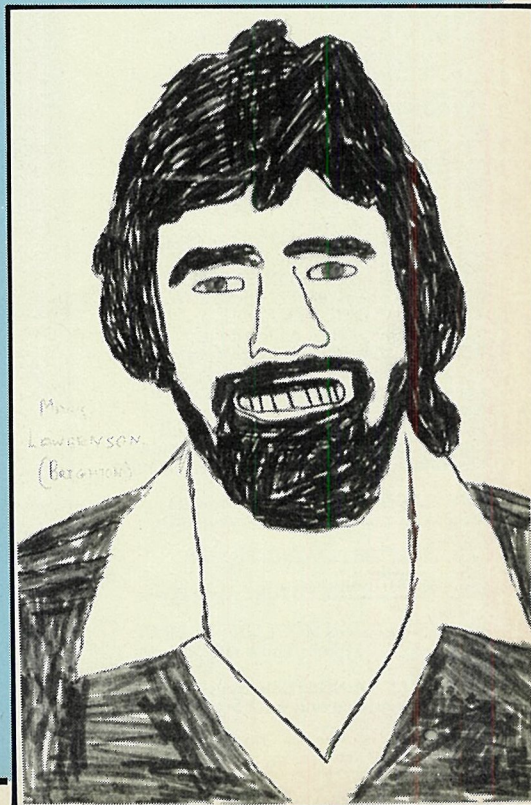

BROTHERS Kevin (5) and Mark (7) Sheldrake, of Thorney, Peterborough sent in these two drawings of their favourite Ipswich star, Paul Mariner. "He's the best in the business," they say.

"Jimmy Rimmer's one of the main reasons why Aston Villa are doing so well this season," says Maria Healy (15) of Walsall, Staffs.

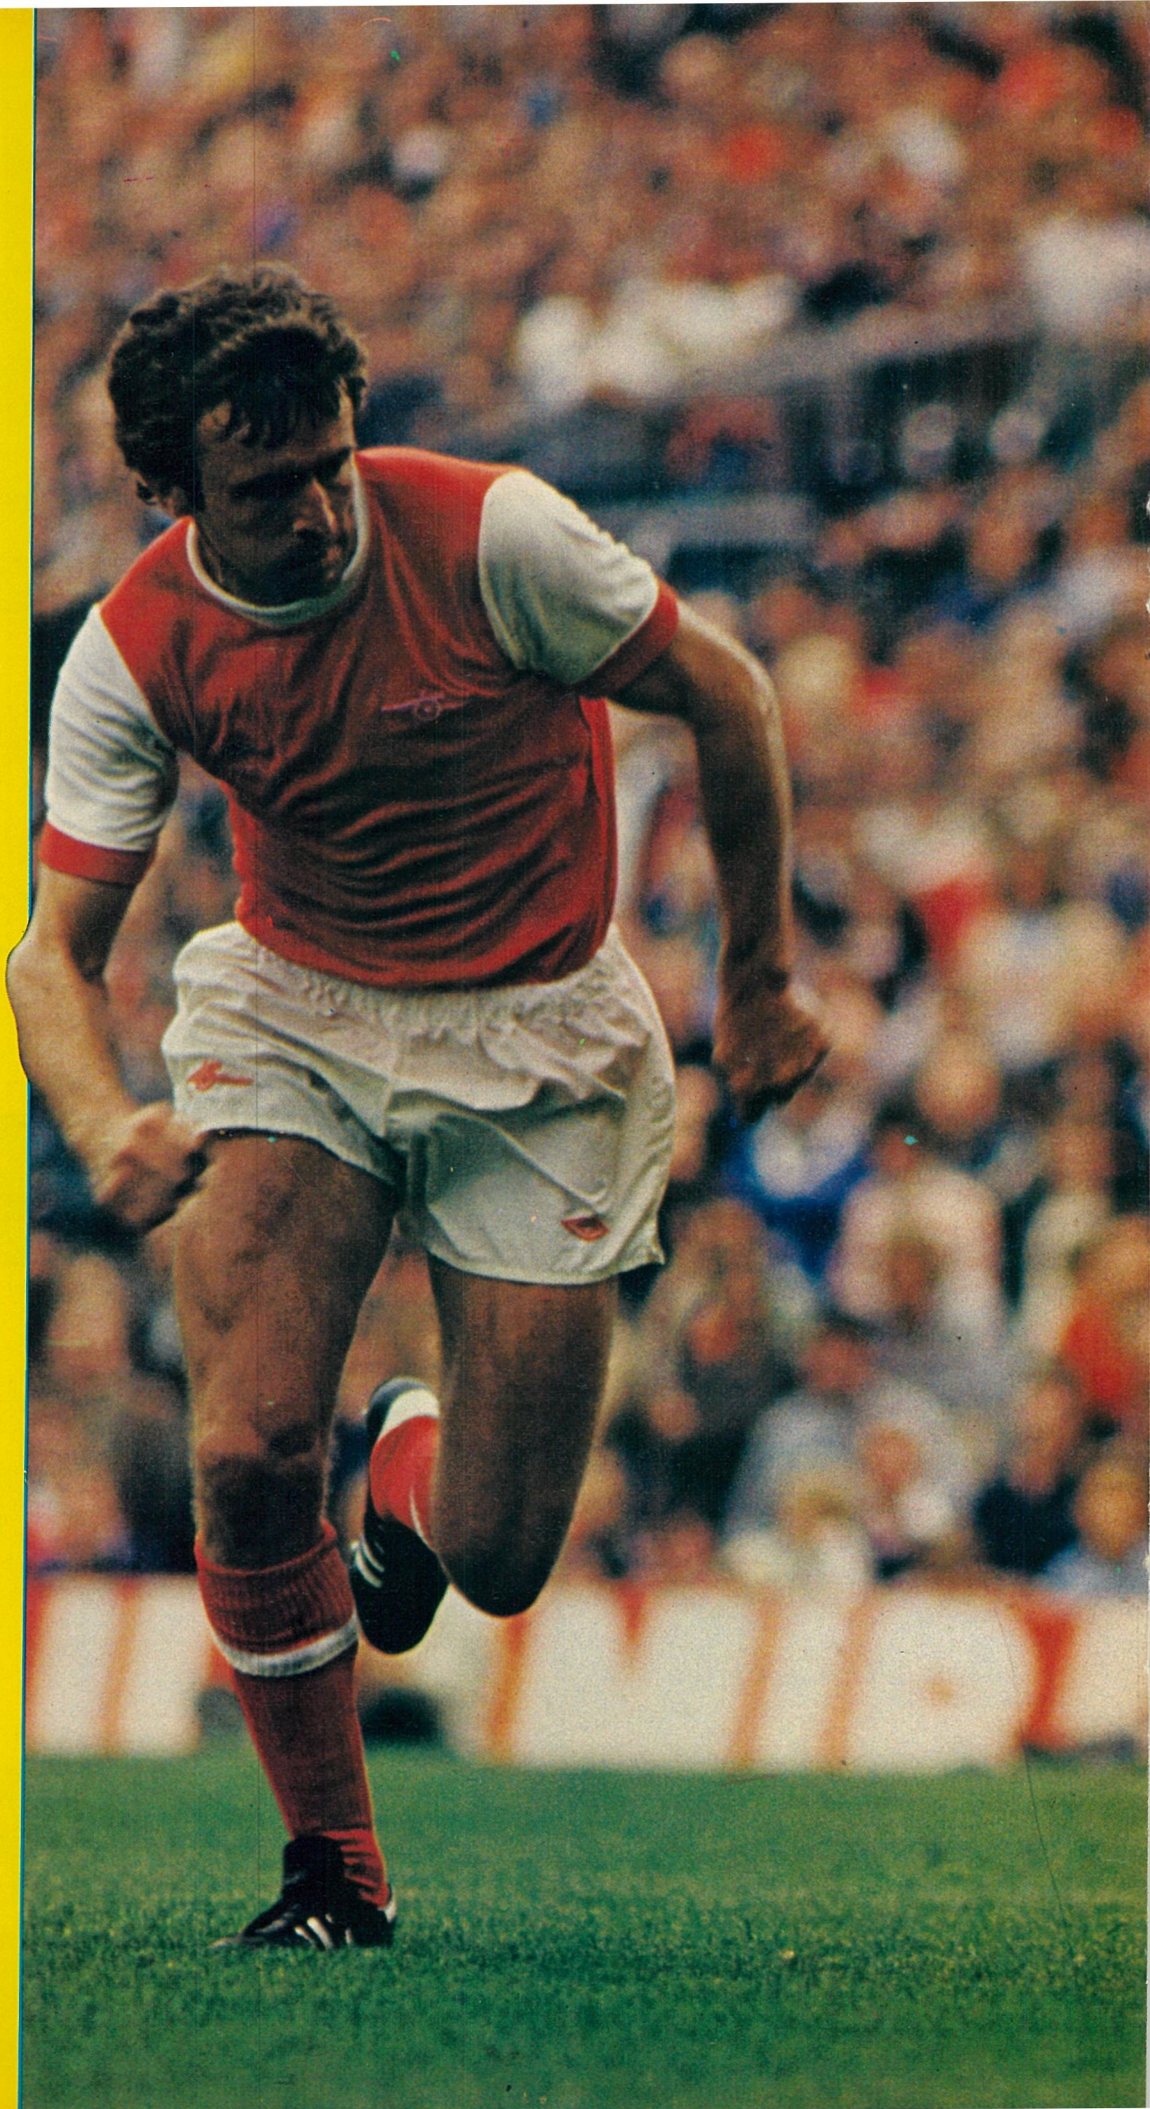

Right: Brighton's Mark Lawrenson is the subject of 11-year-old Kilkenny, Ireland, reader, Brendan Delahunty's artistry. "He's a great header of the ball," says Brendan.

TACKLE A STAR

LEE CHAPMAN

STOKE CITY

Late developer

HOW did you first get spotted by Stoke City? PETER CLAYTON, Bridgnorth, Shropshire.

LEE: I was a late developer Peter and it wasn't until I was 16 and at college studying 'A' levels that Stoke began to show an interest.

They must have seen me playing for my college team because they invited me to train with their amateur teams.

Funnily enough when I was at school, Trentham High in Stoke, I'd always played in midfield.

But the college side included a couple of lads who'd played in the middle of the park for the England colleges team and I couldn't get a game in my favourite position.

They offered me a place up front and I was glad to accept!

HAVE you got a question you've been dying to ask your favourite player? If you have, why don't you drop us a line and we'll try and get him to answer it for you?

Send your question to: 'Tackle a Star', Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough. Don't forget that we'll pay £2 for every question we publish.

Two players soon to be featured are Everton's Asa Hartford, and Aberdeen's Scottish international Gordon Strachan.

GOLDEN GOALS

WHAT'S the best goal you've scored in your career so far? ANDREW FARMER, Stoke.

LEE: Two goals stick out in my mind Andrew. The best came last season against Arsenal at the Victoria Ground. Alan Dodd crossed the ball and I ran in to the near post to send a looping header past Pat Jennings.

The goal that gave me most happiness came in only my second full game for Stoke earlier that season, against Crystal Palace at Selhurst Park.

It was an easy goal, but it still has special memories for me.

Garth Crooks (now Spurs) fired a shot at John Burridge (now Queens Park Rangers). The keeper couldn't hold it and I ran in to put the ball in.

JAM FAN

WHAT are your hobbies and interests outside the game? ROGER STRICKLAND, Warley, West Midlands.

LEE: I'm very interested in music and have a wide taste. I specially enjoy 'New Wave' and like The Jam. My favourite solo singer is Kate Bush.

I collect LPs and enjoy travelling the country going to concerts.

On the sports side I'm a tennis fan and play a lot in the summer.

Our manager Alan Durban is quite handy with a racket and plays for Shropshire. I haven't played him yet — I'll have to work up to it!

TERRIFIC THIJSSEN

WHICH player has impressed you most this season? STEVEN MUNK, Dublin, Eire.

LEE: Without doubt it's got to be Frans Thijssen of Ipswich. We were at Portman Road recently and he played a big part in their 4-0 win.

His skill is unbelievable. He can win the ball in the middle of the field and pinpoint a team-mate with deadly accuracy.

I think Ipswich are currently the best team in the League and they'll take a lot of stopping.

They were in top form when we played them and to be honest I couldn't find a weakness in their display.

HOW do you rate Stoke's form this season? ROGER ELLAM, Batley, Yorks.

LEE: We had a terrible start to the season and conceded five goals on a couple of occasions, so it was obvious that the defence needed tightening.

It's true to say that we became more defence-minded and that helped us get a few points and move up the table.

Around Christmas we were playing well and getting results, but after our FA Cup defeat at Wolves our League form suffered again.

TERRIBLE START

We've got a young side at the moment and I reckon we're a good mid-table team.

Obviously we shall be working to improve our performances and this will come as we gain experience.

My dreams

WHAT are your hopes and ambitions in the game? ALEXANDER STRONG, Shrewsbury.

LEE: I'd love to play in an FA Cup Final at Wembley and represent my country, that's every player's dream.

I am ambitious and I'd like to play for a successful club and win as many honours in the game as I can.

At the moment however I'm happy just to play football and enjoy myself.

Digweed's four day wonder

THE HAWTHORNS was a cold, quiet place when Third Division reserve team goalkeeper Perry Digweed watched his team, Fulham, beat Bury in a drab FA Cup tie.

But just four days later West Brom's ground was a seething mass of scarf-waving fans as the 21-year-old stepped onto the pitch for his Brighton debut.

In that short space of time, the man with the unlikely sounding name suddenly found himself on the tip of everyone's tongue.

Brighton manager Alan Mullery had entrusted the last line of defence in his team's fight for First Division survival to a man who had played just one Third Division game all season!

Mullery, who had publicly blamed goalkeeper Graham Moseley for much of Brighton's problems this season, returned to his old club Fulham and plucked Perry out of obscurity.

"It was a real surprise. When I was at the Hawthorns on the Monday evening I never expected to return there a couple of days later as a First Division keeper," said Perry.

It wasn't the best of baptisms for the youngster. His first two games, against West Brom and Spurs both resulted in 2-0 defeats, but there was enough in the young keeper's performances to suggest Brighton had made a good investment.

"You don't get a second chance in the First Division. One slip and it's a goal," said Perry, who had made just 15 full League appearances for Fulham before his £150,000 transfer.

"It's a great move for me and I'm looking forward to helping keep Brighton in the top flight.

"It looks as though it will be between us and Norwich for that third relegation spot, but I believe we've got the players to pull us through."

To the outsider, the introduction of an unknown Third Division reserve looked like a panic move, but the Brighton management knew all about Perry's capabilities.

Brighton's assistant manager Ken Craggs first noticed his potential when he was running the youth scheme at Craven Cottage.

The Spurs and England shooting star scores for Match

GLENN HODDLE

My dream debut — Five years ago next Saturday

I'LL be celebrating a very special anniversary on Saturday — it will be five years ago exactly since I made my full league debut for Spurs against Stoke and scored the winner!

And who better to start your goalscoring career against but one of the world's best keepers, Peter Shilton!

I was just 17 and it was a tremendous thrill for me to line up with such well-established team-mates as Pat Jennings (now with arch rivals Arsenal), Martin Chivers, and Steve Perryman.

And it was a dream start because my first half goal secured both points for us in a 2-1 victory.

I'll never forget the goal because it was one of my spectacular efforts. The ball came out of the penalty area after a corner and I hit it with my left foot from about 25 yards out.

You can imagine my joy as I saw it fly into the top right hand corner of the net past Peter Shilton.

The goal was a great boost to my confidence and helped me settle down.

I played in central midfield and came up against one of my favourite players — the talented Alan Hudson. He's now in America playing for Seattle Sounders.

I got my chance because an injury to Ralph Coates (now Orient) and finished the season with six full league appearances to my credit.

Of the team I played in that day only myself, Steve Perryman, and Don McAllister remain at White Hart Lane.

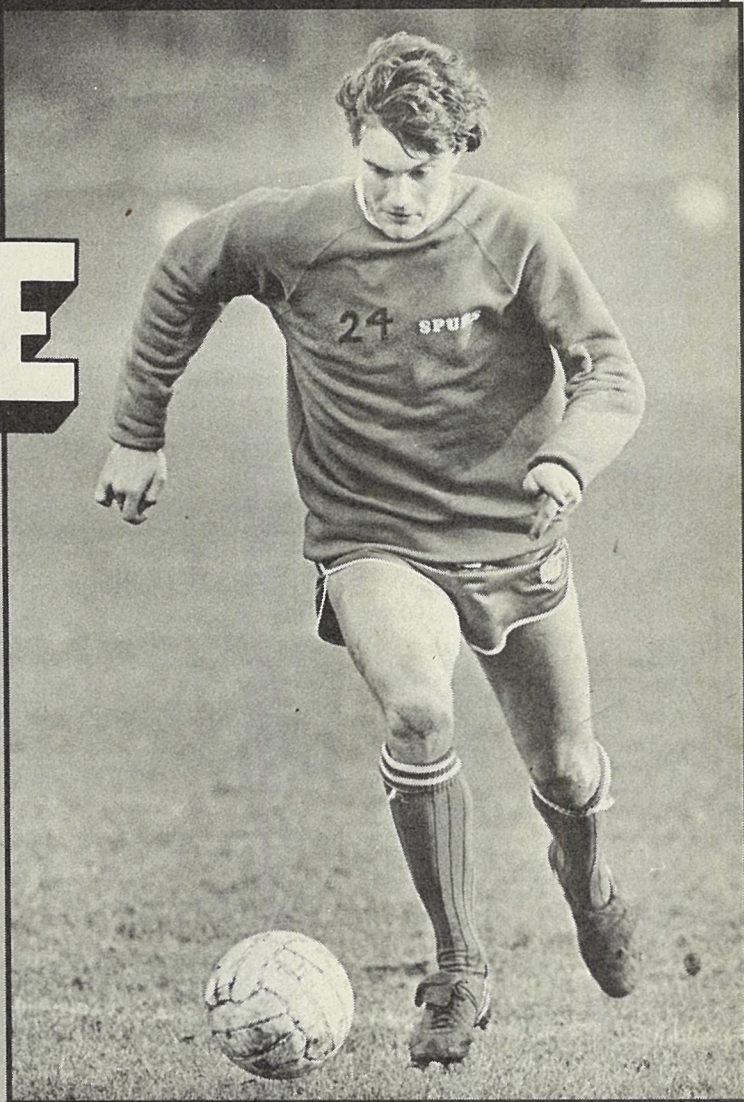

So as I step out on Saturday against Leicester I shall be thinking back to the Potteries.

Just great, Jimmy

GREAT to see my old Spurs team-mate Jimmy Neighbour back in the spotlight and scoring the goal which put West Ham into the League Cup final.

It was quite a master stroke by John Lyall to bring him back into the side against Coventry after a while out of favour.

Jimmy, in fact, made his Spurs debut exactly 10 years ago in the League Cup semi-final win over Bristol City and played in the Wembley final defeat of Aston Villa.

Buchanan the one to watch

LEICESTER'S record-breaking victory over Liverpool at Anfield shows what a great game football is.

Results like that can only be good for the game because they generate so much interest. No-one would have predicted a 2-1 win for struggling Leicester before the game.

And to show it was no fluke they followed it up a week later with a 1-0 victory over Manchester United.

So the Leicester team we face at White Hart Lane on Saturday will be full of confidence and very difficult to beat.

They will have the added incentive of going for the double against us because we lost 2-1 at Filbert Street in September.

One of their goalscorers that day — Dave Buchanan — really impressed me. If he's playing we'll have to keep a close eye on him.

We've been going well ourselves recently and we must get a couple of points from the game to keep up our bid for a place in Europe next season.

The following Saturday we visit another team struggling to find their form — Sunderland.

A visit to the great Roker Park is always a special experience and I'm looking forward to the game.

Their manager Ken Knighton has made a couple of intelligent buys in Ian Bowyer from Nottingham Forest and former Bristol City striker Tom Ritchie.

Both are highly experienced and should be a great asset to the North East club.

Both Leicester and Sunderland are new to the First Division this season and each club has struggled to keep up the pace.

It just goes to show what a great difference there is between the First and Second Division.

Leicester's Dave Buchanan, in action against Trevor Cherry (Leeds), scored the winner against us at Filbert Street earlier this season.

Glenn Hoddle

Praise for Chelsea manager Geoff Hurst.

Hurst was right

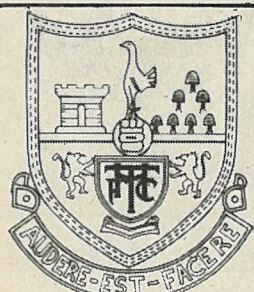

CHELSEA manager Geoff Hurst should be congratulated for pulling out of the Johan Cruyff transfer deal.

The boss stopped the deal because he said it would upset the club's wage structure.

This is an example to all managers. Clubs shouldn't be put in debt just to pay one player.

I would have liked to have seen the great Dutchman at Stamford Bridge, but not at a great cost. Well done Geoff!

Past greats

STAN BOWLES, Paul Goddard and Phil Parkes could walk into most teams in the country and they've got one thing in common — they once played for Queens Park Rangers.

And the following team of former QPR players was sent in by 15-year-old Charles Geiger, of London.

His team consists of: Phil Parkes (West Ham), Dave Clement (Fulham), Eddie Kelly (Notts County), Gerry Francis (Crystal Palace), John Hollins (Arsenal), Don Givens (Birmingham), Don Masson (Notts County), Stan Bowles (Orient), Clive Allen (Crystal Palace), Paul Goddard (West Ham), Peter Eastoe (Everton).

Richard Hewson (12), of Hesse, Humberside is a Hull City supporter and sent in this side of former 'Tigers'.

Jeff Wealands (Birmingham), Gordon Nisbet (Plymouth), Roger De Vries (Blackburn), Peter Daniel (Wolves), Dave Roberts (Cardiff), Paul Haigh (Carlisle), Mick Tait (Portsmouth), Vincent Grimes (Scunthorpe), John Hawley (Sunderland), Stuart Pearson (West Ham), Jeff Hemmerman (Portsmouth).

Don't forget to send in your team of 'Past Greats'. We'll publish another selection next week.

Albiston for Scotland

Man Utd's Arthur Albiston — deserves a Scotland chance.

ONE bright spot in Manchester United's indifferent season has been the form of their full-back Arthur Albiston.

He's a consistent player and I reckon he deserves a run in the Scotland team. He's already been capped at other international levels, but now he's right for the full team.

Take heed, Jock Stein!

Thomas Grennan,
Geashill, Offaly, Eire.

Rovers to blame

BRISTOL ROVERS only have themselves to blame if they get relegated from the Second Division this season.

They can play very good football — as they showed in their recent FA Cup clash with Southampton.

Why they can't carry that fighting performance on in the League I just don't know. They had enough chances to win the game at The Dell.

You've got the skill to get out of trouble, Rovers — use it!

Jonathan Peake (16),
Harefield, Southampton.

TERRACE TALK

Bring back the cards

I WENT to the Everton-Liverpool Cup match at Goodison Park, but it wasn't until I got home that I realised six players had been booked.

The Football Association were definitely wrong to take away the red and yellow cards because now the fans have to guess what's happening.

If we don't have the card system the referee should make some kind of gesture so that we know what's going on.

John Cavanagh,
Airburth, Liverpool.

Golden goof

FRENCH football fans will be hoping that their national goalkeeper doesn't live up to his name.

The surname of their current number one is . . . DROPSY!

But that piece of information wasn't the point of 16-year-old Rory Stephen's letter. The Dalkey, Dublin, reader sent the following in as a 'Golden Goof'.

Can you spot it? Clue: It's something to do with chickens!

Frank Stapleton of a goal which might have opened the way to a famous Irish win.

Nothing, it seemed, had changed in four years, for with France clinging to a 1-0 lead, Michael Robinson swept the ball past the goalkeeper, Michel Dropsy, only to turn away to see the referee, arm uplifted, indicate a fowl.

Tony's the tops

PERHAPS now Exeter's striker Tony Kellow will get the credit he deserves.

He's been the League's leading scorer for most of the season, but it's only now that he's really getting nationwide recognition following his goals which dumped First Division Leicester out of the FA Cup.

He really put his opposite number, Alan Young, in the shade with a great performance.

I'm sure Tony could make his mark in the First Division.

Stephen Howes (14),
Exeter, Devon.

Wallace is wasted

Ian Wallace — is Nottingham Forest manager Brian Clough wasting his talents?

WHAT'S Nottingham Forest manager Brian Clough playing at?

He splashes out £1m in the close season to bring Ian Wallace from Coventry and then doesn't know whether to play him or not.

It's a waste of the club's money and Wallace's talent to have him in and out of the side.

Phillip Knight (14),
Great Lever, Bolton, Lancs.

OUTRAGED!

I'M Anthony Hawkeswell and I'm in charge of the 'Outraged' column.

I'll stand no nonsense... any back-chat and I'll send you off!

I'll be giving marching orders to the writer of the most outrageous letter of the week and booking others who make me really angry.

And just to make it more interesting I'll pay £5 to the person I send off and £2 to each one I book.

But be warned... I'm the ref and my decision stands.

If you dare, write to me at: 'Outraged', Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough.

Blast for Bailey

MANCHESTER UNITED'S Gary Bailey had a nerve to claim the goal which put his team out of the FA Cup at Nottingham Forest.

He only did it so that he could deprive Trevor Francis of the glory. What sportsmanship!

I would have been ashamed to admit that I'd scored the goal that put my team out of the competition.

Cyril Regan (16),
Newtonards, Co. Down, N. Ireland.

● Gary was simply honest enough to admit his mistake which is obviously more than you would have done. You're sent off for penning such a ridiculous letter.

Ipswich for the cup?

I'M OUTRAGED with you, Anthony, for writing-off Ipswich's chance of winning the FA Cup.

You said in a recent issue that they wouldn't reach the final at Wembley and I think that's totally unfair. They have as good a chance as anybody.

A few years ago the Suffolk side were considered second rate, but now they're showing that they're one of the best in the country.

I think you should give them a chance before you make wild predictions.

Michael Munson (13),
Heaton, Newcastle.

● I stand by what I said — they won't win the Cup, but I fancy them to win the League Championship. You're booked for dissent.

Bleak for Liverpool

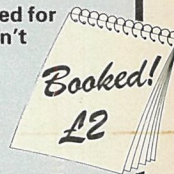

LIVERPOOL'S 2-1 home defeat at the hands of lowly Leicester is final proof that their dominance is over.

I believe the reason for their decline is that Bob Paisley has allowed the team to grow old and his replacements haven't matured in time.

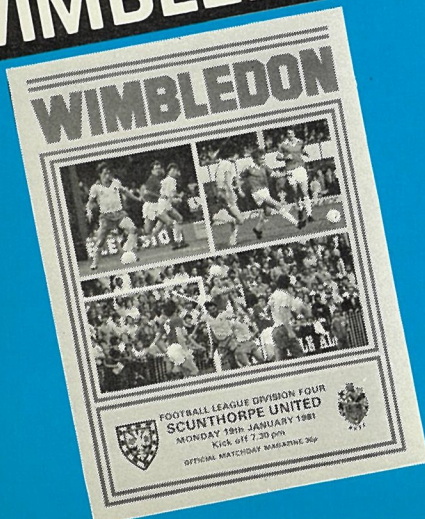

Obviously when the team settles down they will return to the top, but I reckon they've got a couple of bleak years ahead.

Alistair Janusch, Windor, Berks.

● DON'T you believe it. You're booked for being so short-sighted. Liverpool aren't finished.

WIMBLEDON

FOURTH Division Wimbledon have been in the headlines recently because of the proposed merger with Crystal Palace and the move of manager Dario Gradi to Selhurst Park.

But life goes on as normal at Plough Lane... the small headquarters of the Football League's newest recruits.

With so many illustrious clubs in their area, Wimbledon have tried their best to produce an interesting match-day magazine.

The programme we looked at was for a night match against Scunthorpe and while it may have lacked the colour and presentation offered by bigger clubs for 30p the 16-page issue was packed with plenty of information.

Particularly informative and nicely presented was the facts and figures spread, while visiting Scunthorpe were put under the microscope in a very detailed way.

The colourful front page was eye catching, but there was no colour elsewhere apart from the odd yellow and blue borders.

At 30p, it's fairly expensive by Fourth Division standards, but the fans do get plenty of information for their money.

GREAT SCOT!

Archibald ends Jennings hoodoo

GUNNERS' goalkeeper Pat Jennings had emerged from the players tunnel surrounded by a myth of invincibility.

Remarkably he had denied Spurs' strikers a single goal in derby clashes ever since he left White Hart Lane for Highbury.

But Arsenal fans weren't banking on super-Scot Steve Archibald . . .

He didn't just beat the Jenningsinx — he murdered it, with two goals as Spurs won 2-0.

And the first — after just six minutes of the game — was a real golden effort.

Says Steve: "Tony Galvin played the ball up between Arsenal's Willie Young and myself and I just managed to get a toe to it and knock it off to Garry Brooke."

"I ran forward into the box as Garry played the ball out to Glenn who played a great first time ball in to me.

"I chested it down, turned, hit it for the far corner of the net and in it went.

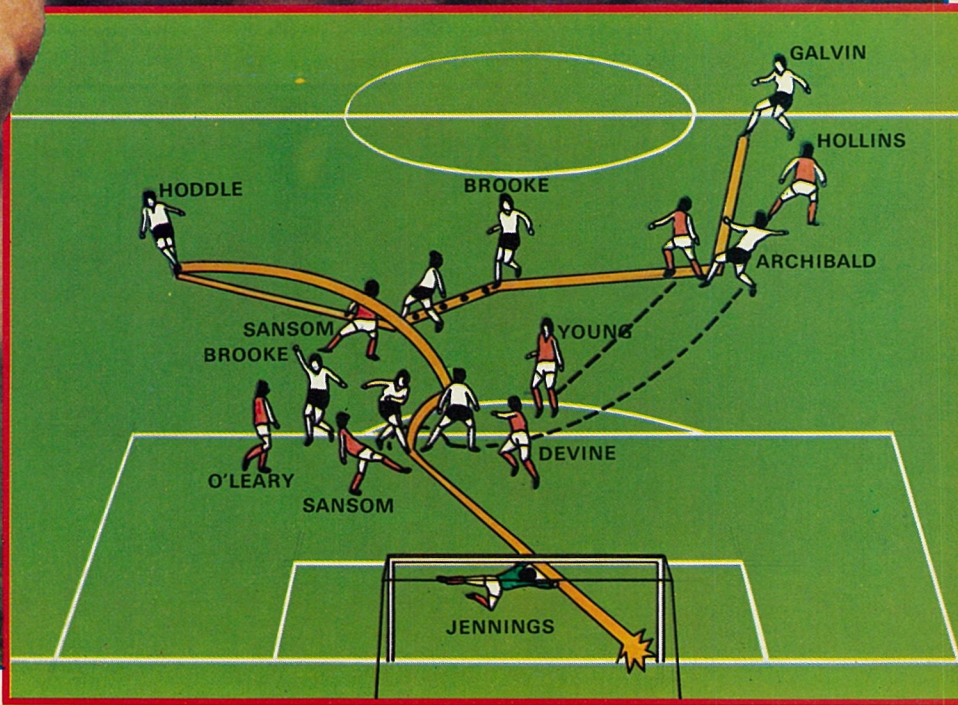

"I was glad to score it — especially because of the Pat Jennings thing. It gave us a great start in the match and helped the team's confidence."

That was Steve's eighteenth League and Cup goal of the season and he followed it with a second in the 89th minute . . . and another the week after in the FA Cup third round victory over Hull.

It took Steve's goal tally to 20 and made him the clear leader in the race for the title of leading scorer in the First Division.

"I must admit it's gone better than I could have expected and I just hope the run continues."

"There's a great atmosphere at the club and I think we are playing more as a team now than we have ever been."

SALUTE TO LIVERPOOL

*The Super
Reds*

PLAYED 85 . . .
won 69 . . .
drawn 16 . . .
lost none . . .

That was Liverpool's amazing home record spanning a period of more than three years between January 21, 1978 and January 31, 1981.

Their Scottish international midfield star Graeme Souness (pictured) has been one of their most regular and consistent performers during that time.

But he's just one player in what is recognised the world over as a truly marvellous 'team' in the true sense of the word.

And over the next two pages Match pays special tribute to the 'Super Reds' who have created a record which may never again be equalled.

Above: The goal that ended Liverpool's proud record from Leicester City's Jim Melrose.

Right: Full back Phil Neal was the only player to figure in all 85 matches.

Below: David Fairclough scored 13 goals in 23 full appearances and added six more when living up to his 'Super Sub' tag.

KINGS

THE 'Kings of the Kop' have lost their crown.

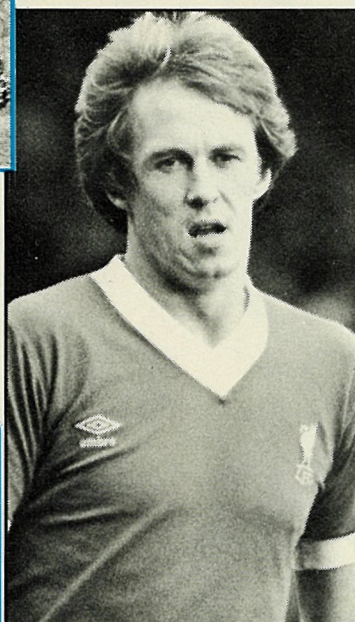

But Liverpool's amazing run of 85 games without defeat in all competitions in front of their Anfield faithfuls will remain one of soccer's greatest feats.

They won no fewer than 69 matches, scoring a remarkable 213 goals — that's almost three per game — and conceding just

From January 21, 1978, when Birmingham won 3-2 at Anfield, the 'Red Machine' steam-rolled its way through 63 League games, six F.A. Cup ties, nine League Cup matches, six European Cup legs and one Super Cup clash.

Struggling Leicester City ended the amazing Anfield success story on January 31, 1981 . . . but not before Liverpool had overtaken Millwall's League record of 59 home matches without defeat set in the sixties.

Only on six occasions did Liverpool fail to score, with

GAMES

LIVERPOOL used 21 players in the unbeaten spell with full back Phil Neal having the distinction of playing in all the 85 matches.

Striker Kenny Dalglish missed just one game, goalkeeper Ray Clemence two, Ray Kennedy and Graeme Souness four.

OF THE KOP

Match salutes Liverpool's glory run

Nottingham Forest the bogey side in three of those matches including the European Cup first round tie when Brian Clough's team ended Liverpool's two-year hold on the coveted trophy.

The only other sides to deny Liverpool a path to goal were Bolton, Norwich and Leeds.

In that three-year spell only eight teams returned undefeated from Anfield — Forest proving the biggest hurdle by snatching four draws.

Ipswich drew there three times, with Leeds (2), Everton (2), Arsenal (2), Southampton and Norwich the others.

Liverpool went through one spell in 1979 without conceding a goal in eight matches and in the championship season of 1978-79 they conceded only four League goals at Anfield!

No side managed to score more than two goals in one visit. Ironically, one of the four teams to do it was Leicester, along with Middlesbrough, Ipswich and Everton.

Five Liverpool men bagged hat-tricks, with Graeme Souness and Terry McDermott getting theirs in the 10-0 drubbing of Finnish part-timers Oulun Palloseura MATCH writer Melvyn Beck takes a fascinating look back at three never to be forgotten years in the history of Liverpool F.C.

GOALS

SCOTTISH star Kenny Dalglish proved to be the deadliest player during the 85-game unbeaten spell with 47 goals out of a total of 213.

City to reign supreme

MANCHESTER CITY are set to throw cold water over the dying embers of United supremacy in the 'capital' of the North on Saturday.

Outshone in both domestic cup competitions by their rivals in blue, the 'Red Devils' now find themselves in danger of being overshadowed in the League.

Five months ago I'd have been locked up for a statement like that.

Now, even the most die-hard of United fans must admit to nagging doubts that the red domination of Manchester is coming to an end.

When the two teams met at Old Trafford back in September the match finished 2-2, Steve Coppell and Arthur Albiston scoring for United and Kevin Reeves and Roger Palmer (now Oldham) replying for City.

Derby games are notoriously close, but I'm going to be surprised by anything but a City victory on Saturday.

Midlands team of the moment ASTON VILLA should encounter little difficulty in continuing their championship charge by taking two points off poor old CRYSTAL PALACE.

And that will give them the League double over the lowly London side, having beaten them 1-0 at Selhurst Park earlier in the season thanks to a Gary Shaw goal.

Down on the South coast BRIGHTON may well be worth a point against Champions LIVERPOOL who defied the form book the other week by losing at home to Leicester.

My guess is that the 'Seagulls' are the best bet of the bottom clubs to avoid the drop.

Meanwhile the promotion race is hotting up in the Second Division and while WEST HAM have built up a commanding lead at the top and should clinch promotion it's anyone's guess who will join them.

CHELSEA must have had their fans wondering when they went 646 minutes without scoring, but their 3-0 victory over SHREWSBURY recently must have done wonders for their confidence and they should beat WATFORD on Saturday.

Steve Coppell — scored United's first goal in the derby match at Old Trafford earlier this season and he's sure to be a key man on Saturday.

WEST HAM have broken transfer records twice in this corresponding week over the past few years.

On February 24 back in 1973 they paid a club record £150,000 for Bournemouth striker Ted MacDougall.

Then just two years ago on February 22 they bought goalkeeper Phil Parkes from London neighbours Queen's Park Rangers for £527,000 — a world record fee for a goalkeeper.

West Ham goalkeeper Phil Parkes — it's the second anniversary of his record move to Upton Park on Sunday.

Other significant happenings during this corresponding week over the past few years:

- February 20, 1974 — Bruce Rioch signs for Derby in a £200,000 deal from Aston Villa.
- February 21, 1976 — Three Oxford United players — John Shuker, Mick Tait and Peter Houseman — are sent off in the same match at Blackpool.
- February 22, 1977 — Brian Little shoots Aston Villa into the League Cup final with a hat-trick against QPR.
- February 22, 1977 — Brian Clough turns down an offer to rejoin Derby County.
- February 22, 1980 — Rangers play Scottish transfer record of £210,000 for Dundee striker Ian Redford.
- February 23, 1976 — Bradford City become only the third Fourth Division team to reach last eight of FA Cup following 2-1 win at Norwich.
- February 24, 1979 — Alan Mayes, an £80,000 signing from Watford, scores a hat-trick on his debut for Swindon.

IN THE table on the right Match writer Paul Stratton has predicted scorelines for ten of Saturday's matches and the challenge is . . . beat him if you can!

There's a space for your forecasts, one for dad and a column for the actual results.

Award yourself two points for every score you get right and one point if you get a result right (i.e. home, away, draw) but the scoreline wrong.

And why not challenge your friends at the same time?

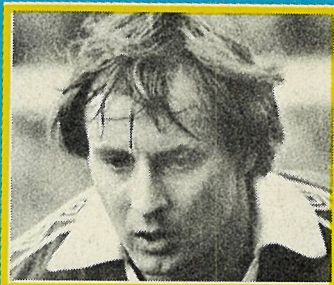

H IS FOR...

Did you know...

TV personality Jimmy HILL is one of only seven players since the war to have scored five goals in an away League game. He did it for Fulham at Doncaster Rovers in Division Two in March 1958.

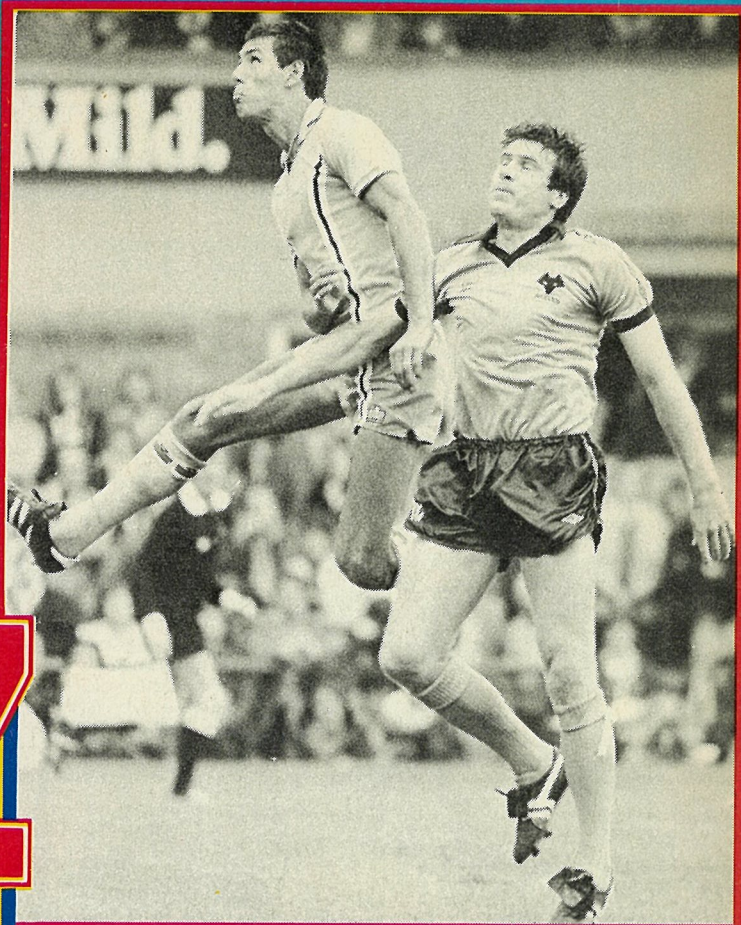

In season 1965-66, Tony HATELEY was the scourge of London. He went there five times with Aston Villa and scored in every match. He hit four at Spurs, two at Fulham, and one each at Arsenal, Chelsea and West Ham.

H is for . . . HOME International Championship. Here David Johnson (England) takes on Willie Miller (Scotland).

Everton's HARD-WORKING midfielder player Asa HARTFORD.

Right: H is for . . . HEADING. Here Emlyn HUGHES (Wolves) and Mark HATELEY (Coventry) clash in a mid-air duel.

A to Z of soccer

H IS FOR . . .

- Old 'Crazy HORSE' himself — Emlyn HUGHES of Wolves, who has won every major HONOUR in our game.
- HOME where every team likes to play. Places like HAMPDEN for Scotland, Highbury for Arsenal, Hillsborough for Sheffield Wednesday, and The Hawthorns for West Brom.
- HAND BALL an offence that's punished by the referees with a free kick or a penalty.
- The HIBBITT brothers — Terry (Newcastle) and Kenny (Wolves) both stylish midfield players.
- HARD MAN Norman HUNTER, the boss of promotion chasing Barnsley, who made 543 League appearances for Leeds and played 28 times for England.
- HUDDERSFIELD, whose Jimmy Glazzard HEADED five goals in one match against Everton in 1951-52.
- HARTLEPOOL, who in 1959-60 conceded 109 goals in a season — a Fourth Division record. 'H' is also for HALIFAX, and HULL.
- HOT-SHOTS — those players with a fierce power-packed drive such as Arsenal's evergreen John HOLLINS.
- HALF-TIME when the players go for a cuppa and the fans discuss the HAPPENINGS of the first 45 minutes.
- HARD-WORKING midfield stars such as Asa HARTFORD (Everton), Glenn HODDLE (Spurs), Steve HUNT (Coventry), Tommy HUTCHISON (Man City), Adrian HEATH (Stoke), Vince HILAIRE (Crystal Palace), and Brian HORTON (Brighton) . . . the men who make their teams tick.
- HIBERNIAN of the Scottish First Division who first applied to join the Edinburgh Association in 1875 and were turned down because they were 'too rough.'
- HAT-TRICK HERO Geoff HURST (now manager of Chelsea) who became the first player ever to hit three goals in a World Cup Final.
- HORST HRUBESCH, the West German hero they call 'The Monster.' His two goals gave Germany the European Championship.
